Subject: Abbott Inventory Update: Nutrition Products

For more than 130 years, Abbott has provided patients and customers with the vital health care products, service and support they need. That commitment remains steadfast as we work to support patients during times of medical need. Demand for our nutritional products has increased. The products listed below are currently low in inventory and are being produced from August through October, with estimated inventory recovery dates as noted.

To provide flexibility in meeting customer demand, the table below provides suggested alternatives to meet the nutritional needs of your patients. We encourage you to reach out to your Abbott representative to discuss the product options that will best meet your and your patients' needs.
